

House of Short Stories by Studio KE Architects unfolds picturesque tales

INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE

Blue leather sofas with standing brass chairs (Herman Miller Company) reinforce the use of brass in the living space. Bespoke lighting elements like the indoor light screen, Sassy Light by Lou Chen, the Light G.T.R. Lamp by Jimmy Hsu and the brass table lamp by Studio KE Architects, who brought their architectural expertise to the table, work together to create an exciting home environment. Photo: Sassy Studio.

A wide variety of accessories including a round mirror, the wood panel lamp (by Studio KE Architects), bedside lighting (by Jimmy Hsu) and the brass pendant (by Lou Chen) (Herman Miller Company) are added to create a rich atmosphere. The magazine credits the House of Short Stories to the talented architectural talents of the contemporary interior. Photo: Sassy Studio (Photography by Sassy Studio).

White leather furniture with standing brass chairs (Herman Miller Company) and the table of the designer's Sassy Studio. The bed and Sassy Studio table lamp by Studio KE Architects, who brought their architectural expertise to the table, work together to create an exciting home environment. Photo: Sassy Studio.