Right: A bathroom in a neoclassical villa in Naples, restored by French interior designer Jacques Garcia, is decorated with Vermont Green and Rosso Orobico marble. The bathtub and basin were designed by Garcia; the taps are Montmartre. (Photo: Jérôme Galland.) Facing page: Designers Nate Berkus and Jeremiah Brent decorated their Los Angeles home. The master bath features a James Mobley mural; the fittings and marble moulding and panels are from Waterworks; the tub is by Signature Hardware; the sink is from Duravit. (Photo: Douglas Friedman.
